CHARLOTTE GLENCROSS GALLERY

Opening Night: March 18th, 5 - 7 PM

'Install' is a group exhibition that consists of 11 artists that each have a strong connection with the Charlotte Street Arts Centre. This exhibit allows various individuals to come together and create a beautiful exhibition of brilliance through diversity. Most of the artists make up our volunteer Exhibition Committee, and as such they are often found hanging the works for the Charlotte Glencross Gallery, hence the name 'Install'. The rest of the group is represented by volunteers and CSAC staff members who have also had their turn to "Install". This exhibit will showcase the contrast of originality in each artist, as they express through different mediums and styles of work.

PENNY GALLERY

Sweet Decay: Opening night coincides with Install on March 18th

Sweet Decay is a group exhibition that has been created by our UNB intern Jamie-Lee Carbno. The concept of the exhibit has been her main project since she began with us in September, now the date is almost here for her to curate and hang the work! Her notion behind the exhibit was something that appears graceful but also has an edge to it. This particular exhibition was inspired by a piece that Jamie also has an edge to it. This particular exhibition was inspired by a piece that Jamie had felted together. Sweet Decay showcases work from 11 individuals that are in Post Secondary Education, including Jamie!

EVENTS

Phil Dwyer & Ben Dwyer Concert
Sunday, March 20th @ 2 p.m.

Be serenaded at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre for a delightful Sunday afternoon. The "Dwyer Duo" features Canadian jazz legend Phil Dwyer (piano/saxophone) and up-and-coming Montreal bassist Ben Dwyer. The duo has dazzled audiences from Vancouver Island to PEI with their beautiful renditions of classic material from the Great American Songbook. Expect an amazing show put on by one of the leading names of contemporary jazz, Phil Dwyer. Phil and Ben will be performing their twist on the favorites from the golden age of movies to Broadway musicals.
