

Currently in the Charlotte Glencross Gallery and the Culture Garden: 'scape by Emerge Artists Group, up until July 31. View mixed media and outdoor installation works.

Visit artist-in-residence, Ned Bear, in Images Studio (Room 102) or watch him work outdoors on his woodcarving, next to the Culture Garden, until July 25. Ned is carving one of the Charlotte Street Arts Centre's historical beams, hundreds of years old, into Pawakan (spirit helpers). Big thanks to artsnb for funding support for the project!

Fredericton Arts & Learning (FAL) is pleased to announce two new corporate sponsorships: Picaroons Traditional Ales will be offering beer tastings at upcoming receptions in the Charlotte Glencross Gallery. Thanks, Picaroons! Also, many thanks to Simms Home Hardware for their recent support of our Culture Garden project through the donation of a brand new lawn mower!

Thursday, July 7th, from 5-8pm is the City of Fredericton Culture Crawl. Take this opportunity to visit the Charlotte Street Arts Centre (part of the Crawl) and take advantage of open studio doors, munchies and beverages as you peruse the Charlotte Glencross Gallery and take in the new developments in the Culture Garden!

Fredericton Arts & Learning is extremely pleased with the work of local woman-in-business, Kara Doucet of Backyard Betty Design. Kara has been hard at work implementing the new landscape design she developed for the Charlotte Street Arts Centre Culture Garden. Kara was recently featured in Here Magazine for her environmentally-conscious landscape design and her work with FAL.

The Charlotte Street Arts Centre is on YouTube: <http://www.youtube.com/user/CharlotteStreetArts> – subscribe to our channel for regular podcasts about our ongoing activities!

Fredericton Arts & Learning is very excited to announce our new President! Nora Kelly, former Deputy Minister of Wellness, Culture and Sport, Health and former Executive-in-Residence at UNB (to name just a few accomplishments) has officially stepped into the role! Welcome, Nora!

NED BEAR, ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

Ned Bear is a prominent First Nations artist, well-known for his woodcarving and sculptural work in natural media, and has beautiful pieces featured in collections internationally. Ned is a graduate of the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design, the University of New Brunswick and has also studied at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design University, as well as at the First Nations University of Canada (Sask). Ned will be working as CSAC's artist-in-residence until July 25.

The Charlotte Street Arts Centre is a focal point for creation, presentation and education in the arts.
