ERICA SULLIVAN,
ARTS DEVELOPMENT
COORDINATOR

Erica Sullivan works in the Fredericton Arts & Learning office (Room 200) to coordinate all of our ArtReach programs and workshops in marginalized communities. Erica is a graduate of the NB College of Craft and Design, as well as the University of New Brunswick, and is a professional artist as well as an arts administrator. Erica puts her heart into designing programming that will best serve the communities we work with.

Showing currently in the Charlotte Glencross Gallery until April 30th – Colours of My Soul: Paintings by Heather Perritt. The Charlotte Glencross Gallery, located in the heart of the Charlotte Street Arts Centre, provides a visually unique exhibition space frequented by a diverse and appreciative audience for the arts.

Fredericton Music Festival, a festival of piano music, happens April 11-15 in the Auditorium. For more information please call Diane Melanson at 451-1115 or 476-7338.

Dan Mangan from Vancouver, hosted by Forward Music Group, plays a concert in the Auditorium April 21, 8-10:30. Doors open at 7pm. Tickets available at Backstreet Records and Read's Newstand in downtown Fredericton. For more information contact Forward Music Group at zach@forwardmusicgroup.com

The Charlotte Street Arts Centre is proud to announce its new house band, Richard Gloade Esq & Co. To check out our new band's sound, visit their MySpace page at myspace.com/richardgloadeesq - You may hear Richard & Co at our upcoming openings and public receptions. The band's smooth, upbeat sound is sure to please your ears and get you into a happy groove. We're big fans!

Cat Leblanc, Membership Services Director at the New Brunswick Filmmakers Co-op (Room 131) recently received a 2011 Wave Award as part of the inaugural Women Making Waves festival, put on by Women in Film & Television-Atlantic. Cat received her award in Halifax on March 5, for her key role in organizing the Silver Wave Film Festival, presented each year at venues in Fredericton, including in the Charlotte Street Arts Centre Auditorium. BIG congratulations, Cat!

Fredericton Arts & Learning has a new blog! Keep up to date with current activities, see photos from our ArtReach programs, and link to our Facebook page where regular ArtReach artist profiles and links to their websites are posted. Come 'like' us!
