Subscribe Share ▼ Past Issues Translate ▼

View this email in your browser

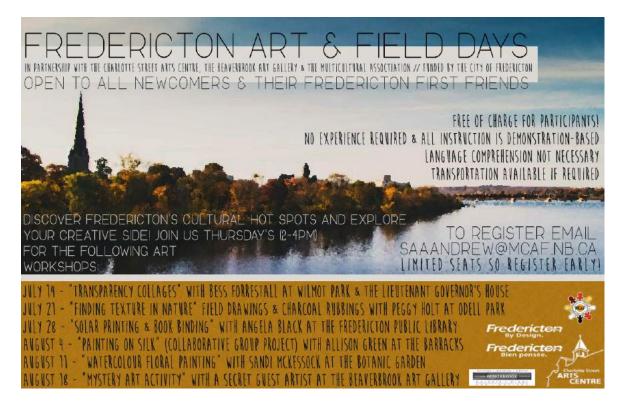

CSAC NEWS July 2016 Newsletter

IUP FRONT AT THE CENTRE I

Issue 54

Featured in this edition: Thank you to Kate Rogers, Kids

Camps, Summer Exhibitions, Art & Field Days

Fredericton Art & Field Days

All Summer Long!

Fredericton Art & Field Days is a summer program aimed at exploring and discovering the City of Fredericton through an artistic lens. The program is offered free of charge for all Newcomers and their Fredericton First Friends, participants are invited to impart on weekly field trips to different cultural hot spots around the City. Every Thursday from 2-4 PM, a different local artist will teach the group not only basic techniques in drawing, painting, solar printing, bookbinding and more, but also about the cultural and historical significance of these locations. Charlotte Street Arts Centre is pleased to partner with the Beaverbrook Art Gallery and the Multicultural Association with offer the following workshop schedule, graciously funded by the City of Fredericton:

Thursday, July 14 - Workshop led by artist Bess Forrestall at Wilmot Park & the Lieutenant Governor's House

Thursday, July 21 – "Finding Texture in Nature" Field drawind and charcoal rubbings with artist Peggy Holt at Odell Park

Thursday, July 28 - "Solar Printing & Book Binding" with artist Angela Black at the Fredericton Public Library

Thursday, August 4 – Workshop led by artist Allison Green at the Barracks

Thursday, August 11 – Watercolour Florals with artist Sandi Mckessock at the Botanical Gardens

Thursday, August 18 – Workshop led by a guest artist at the Beaverbrook Art Gallery

Thank you Kate Rogers!

We would like to take a moment to thank Kate Rogers for her many years of dedication to The Charlotte Street Arts Centre and congratulate her on her new role as The Deputy Mayor of the City of Fredericton! As the Executive Director for the past two years, and through prior roles at CSAC, Kate has been instrumental in the continuous evolution of the Centre. From an idea sparked in 2001, to the transformation of this 130 year building into a creative and flourishing space, Charlotte Street Arts Centre has become what it is because of amazing people like Kate. We are so happy for her to have been given the opportunity to better our city through her new position on council, and we look forward to seeing the growth of the Arts and Culture Sector in our community. Kate, we thank you so much for your passion, your drive, your skills and your continued love for Charlotte Street Arts Centre. Your enthusiasm and commitment to CSAC has helped it to grow into the well-established community arts centre that it is today, and we are forever grateful.

Before leaving, Kate helped us define the roles and responsibilities for the Executive Director position and we are now accepting applications. We are looking for an individual who will take their passion for the arts, skills as a manager and other relevant abilities to fill the role as the Executive Director for Charlotte Street Arts Centre starting in September.

Here is an overview of the position:

To provide day-to-day effective, efficient operation of the organization, and to meet strategic goals and objectives of Charlotte Street Arts Centre both as a building manager and as a liaison with the arts community and the public.

Please click on link below for a fully detailed job description:

http://charlottestreetarts.ca/publications/Executive_Director-_Position_Description.pdf

If you have a passion for the arts, and the drive to be a part of the Charlotte Street Arts

Centre, please send your resume and a cover letter to:

Courtney Steeves at manager@charlottestreetarts.ca
subject line "EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR POSITION"

We will be accepting applications until Wednesday August 3rd at noon.

If you have any questions please call 506-454-6952.

Charlotte Glencross Gallery Submission

Deadline: August 1st, 2016

Are you interested in showcasing your work in our Centre? The Charlotte Street Arts Centre is accepting submissions for our Charlotte Glencross Gallery for the new year of 2017!

How to Apply:

 $\frac{\text{http://charlottestreetarts.ca/index.php/site/how-}}{\text{to-apply}}$

Summer Exhibitions

Showcased until August 16th

Charlotte Glencross Gallery & Penny Gallery

Over the summer make sure to take a peak at our exhibitions in our galleries. The Charlotte Glencross Gallery holds Incongruity, which displays beautiful, unique paintings of flowers and landscapes by Lindsey MacKay. In contrast is Kyle Gartshore's exhibition in our Penny Gallery, Art & Athlete, which showcases his abstract designs created after intensive dance routines.

TO REGISTER, CONTACT:

JUDIE ACQUIN: 461-3634 ANGEE ACQUIN: 471-6844

August 8th - 12th, 2016

For our third annual year, we are hosting our Ekpahak summer camp. This week long camp is packed with fun for First Nations Youth in New Brunswick. Judie and Angee Acquin, from St. Mary's First Nation have been advocates and lead a huge role in these camps every year.

KidSing!

Join KidSing this summer at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre! Junior Camps every week until August 26th.

"creative. confident. kids."

www.kidsing.ca

Art & Field Days!

July 14th - August 18th

This summer the Charlotte Street Arts Centre has paired up with the City of Fredericton, the Beaverbrook Art Gallery and the Multicultural Association to provide a program open to all Newcomers and their Fredericton First Friends. Every Thursday for the next 6 weeks will be free art workshops: including drawing, painting, solar printing, bookbinding and more!

Outside the Centre Events

July 16th - 17th

Charlotte Street Artist, Chris Harding will be at the Marco Polo Cruise Terminal in St. John this weekend for a unique craft show. Any First Nations Youth that are middle school age and grade 9, are welcome to register for this camp!

Contact: Laurel Green by phone (506-454-6952)

or e-mail: artreach@charlottestreetarts.ca

