ArtReach Programs This Month

Beginning this March CSAC's ArtReach program will be launching group art sessions and one on ones with youth from Fredericton Mental Health. Every Tuesday and Thursday, Linda Groeger will be facilitating art as a creative expression within activities and workshops along with our UNB intern, Danielle Anderson.

MacLean School for Early Childhood

Open Classroom: Saturday, March 18th
9:00-11:00am

Looking for a preschool/kindergarten class for your child with enrichment opportunities in the arts? MacLean School offers a morning program for children 4 and 5 years old Monday - Friday, September through June. Children must turn 4 by December 31st, 2017.

Milda's Pizza is not just a spot for delicious food but also a place to enjoy the arts of all kinds for free!

Thursday, March 2nd: Opening of Christopher Harding's exhibit in the cafe at 5:00 PM.

Saturday, March 18th: Music in the morning with Mike Bravener at 10:30AM.

Saturday, March 25th: Tea ceremony with Tina Sharapova at 10:30 AM.

Come and learn about their program and registration for September.

Staff Feature: Danielle Anderson

Danielle Anderson is our newest staff member to the Charlotte Street Arts Centre! Danielle is here on an internship course from UNB that she began in January and will be with us until May. She is currently in her third year of a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in Psychology. Danielle will be working with us on the Art Expression program we are offering through Fredericton Mental Health.

In her free time she enjoys painting, aerial silks and lyra. Working towards a career as an Art Therapist, she is passionate about utilizing the therapeutic benefits of all forms of art, mindfulness and animals to facilitate healing and wellness. A warm welcome to Danielle and a huge thanks to the work you have already done with us!
