FAREWELL

ANGELINE NG

Farewell to our amazing and dedicated Administrator of CSAC. Angeline Ng has been the friendly face you see in our office for the last 4 years; an individual with focus and lots of ideas has brought the Centre great value in her presence and hard work. Angeline is here until July 14th for anyone wishing to say a goodbye. We appreciate everything you have done and will certainly miss you! Enjoy your time and next adventure in life!

OFFICE HOURS: As we are transitioning staff and working on our Accessibility Campaign, please be aware that office hours will be strictly from 9:30-1:00 pm, unless an appointment is made.*

EKPAHAK Urban Cultural Camp

July 17th - 21st

We will be offering up our fourth edition of EKPAHAK next week! This is a week-long urban cultural experience, which gives youth from St. Mary's First Nation and Newcomer youth from the Multicultural Association of Fredericton the opportunity to explore and discover Fredericton through an arts and culture point of view. We will be learning about traditional arts and crafts from First Nations' artists as well as touring some of the city's most treasured institutions.
